Problem

Great builders spend whatever time they have left just trying to get a meal in. How can we expect them to be founders if they're still coding, not founding?

Everyone is a founder.

You just need a seed to start.

Where are you right now?

The solution: A guided conversation that helps builders discover their pitch over time.

Traction

- May 18, 2026
App launched. tinker is live.
- Today, May 28, 2026
First paid user — the founder.
- Month 6
Target: 1,000 paid developers.
- Month 12
Target: 2,000 paid developers (~$216,000 yearly revenue).

Market

$2.16 billion a year

20 million developers × $9 a
month.

The market is every developer worldwide who could ship a founder pitch. At $9 a month, this is the ceiling — what we capture is what we earn.

Ask

$500,000 → 12 months. Closing now — savings run out at the end of May.

$168,000 — founder salary, 12 months ($150,000 base + $18,000 benefits).

$50,000 — Instagram ads to non-developer makers (target: 2,000 paid users).

$6,000 — food at monthly community events ($500/month, 12 months).

$35,000 — legal, accounting, banking, incorporation.

$25,000 — Anthropic API (the per-user cost behind the $9 estimate).

$20,000 — San Francisco (3 months living + weekly flights home).

$10,000 — office and dev stack (Industrious $332/mo + Claude Code $200/mo + Vercel + PlanetScale + Stytych + GitHub).

$186,000 — reserves (extends runway to ~18 months at current burn).

Line in the sand: savings run out end of May 2026. If the round doesn't close, I step away.

Thank you
